BEATLES BONUS

Name these members of the Beatles' inner circle…

1.

2.
3.

4.

5.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.
8.
9.

10.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

ALBUM COVERS

Name them…these are slightly truncated or otherwise edited versions of the U.S. releases, not the British ones.

11.
12.

13.

14.

15.
11.

12.

13.

14.

15.

SONG LYRICS

Name the song that these lyrics are from…

"…so how could I dance with another…":

16.

"…sitting on a sofa with a sister or two…":

17.

"…she took me half the way there…"

18.

"…then you can start to make it better…"

19.

"…I feel good in a special way…"

20.

CHARACTERS

These characters are referenced in what Beatles' song?:

21. Billy Shears:
22. Father McKenzie:
23. Loretta Martin:
24. Desmond Jones:
25. Nancy Magil:

PLACES

What are these places in “real life” that makes them significant for the Beatles?

26. Strawberry Fields:

27. Penny Lane:

28. Blue Jay Way:

In what songs are these places referenced?

29. Blackburn, Lancashire:

30. Bishopsgate:

FIRSTS AND LASTS

What was the initial name of the band?

31.

Ringo’s original group:

32.

The Beatles, to this day, are the only artists to have all five of the top five songs on the Billboard Top 100 Singles of the week chart at one time. What were the five songs?

33.

34.

35.

36.

37.

Their first #1 song in America:

38.

Their last #1 song in America:

39.

Their last #1 album in America:

40.

LOVERS, FRIENDS AND FAMILY

Paul's girlfriend, Jane Asher, had a brother in what pop duo?

41.

Paul wrote a song for that group that went to #1 in the charts, named:

42.

George met his first wife, Patty Boyd, where?

43.

She later left him for whom?

44.

Who is the song "Julia" named for?

45.

“PAUL IS DEAD” CLUES

What song, played backwards, supposedly says “Turn me on, dead man” over and over again?

46.

At the end of what song does John allegedly moan “I buried Paul”

47.

In what song does John sing “The walrus is Paul,” the walrus being a sign of death in some cultures:

48.

On the Sgt. Pepper’s back album cover, Paul is pointing to a line, a lyric in a song that allegedly means he died at that time, “Wednesday morning at 5 o’clock”…. in what song was that lyric?

49.

There is another song which, if played backwards, purports to say, “Paul is dead…miss him, miss him, miss him” with increasing urgency. Which song?

50.

POST-BEATLES

Who was the first Beatle to have a number one single after the band broke up?

51.

What were the first #1 hits of each Beatle, post-Beatles:

52.
53.
54.
55.

What is the name of Ringo's touring band?

56.

George is credited the first large scale benefit concert in 1971…what was the name of that concert? (It was actually two concerts)

57.

George was part of another group that had several hits in the 80's, a band that included, among others, Roy Orbison and Bob Dylan. What was the name of that group?

58.

In 1969, John and Yoko held a two events to protest the Vietnam War in a rather unusual fashion, one in Amsterdam and the other in Montreal? What was the form of their protest?

59.

Paul's post-Beatles band, Wings, had only three consistent members in the course of it's run from 1971-1981: Paul, Lina and Denny Laine. What '60's band was Laine originally from?

60.

A FEW TO END ON

Frank Sinatra called it the “greatest love song ever written”…

61.

This Wings’ single remains the UK’s bestselling non-charity single…

62.

Among the first artists signed by Apple Records was this US folk singer from North Carolina (though actually born in Boston)…

63.

Will you still need me, will you still feed me, when I’m…..

64.